Tacoma Police detectives need your help to identify the suspects responsible for the murder of Stephan Folsom and the assault of another man.

At 1:45 a.m. on October 20th, 1995, two security guards were working in the parking lot of the Swan Creek Apartments in the 1900 block of E. 56th St. in the City of Tacoma. The security guards saw a yellow or gold car driving slowly past the apartment complex, then saw an unidentified suspect in the vehicle's back seat fire numerous gunshots toward the apartments.

One of the security guards was struck in the leg and another stray bullet went through the wall of an apartment, striking and killing victim Stephan Folsom. Folsom was watching television with friends at the time of the shooting and was not believed to be the intended target of the shooting in any way.

Detectives are looking for any information on the identity of the suspects involved in the drive by shooting and the vehicle used by the suspects.
