Pierce County Sheriff's detectives need your help to identify the suspect responsible for the murder of Jeremy Goode.

On June 5th, 1995, the body of victim Jeremy Goode was found inside of a motel room in the abandoned Rainier Motel building located in the 9800 block of South Tacoma Way in Lakewood. The victim had been shot to death by an unidentified suspect several days prior to his body being discovered.

Jeremy Goode was a 25 year-old male from the Lake Forest area of California. During 1995 Goode had been following the band the Grateful Dead's tour around the United States, and is believed to have been in the area to attend the Grateful Dead concerts held at the Seattle Center on May 24th, 25th, and 26th of 1995.

Detectives are looking for any information on suspicious persons seen with Jeremy Goode at the Seattle concerts or in the Lakewood area, and on any suspicious activity at the abandoned hotel in the days prior to Goode's body being discovered.
